

Jury Shorts 1

Amsterdam, Rialto, 5 juli, 18.00 uur

Short international films that are selected for the Cinedans Award.

foto Matthew Andrews

Diva

GB, 2007

Director & Choreography : Liz Aggiss

Time: 4 minutes

A woman prepares and in a moment cut short we are shown her dance through a view from above. The choreography reveals her story cut, spliced and re-spliced.

Ready

AU, 2007

Director: David Corbet

Choreography: Paea Leach

Time: 2 minutes

A woman prepares and in a moment cut short we are shown her dance through a view from above. The choreography reveals her story cut, spliced and re-spliced.

Night Practice

GB, 2006

Director & Choreography : Susanna Wallin

Time: 3 minutes

Seven dancers of Coventry's Kombat Breakers practice moves on a floodlit football field.

Another Building # 1: Quarantine

US, 2007

Director: Gabri Christa

Choreography: Kyle Abraham

Time: 10 minutes

An older man watches a younger alter ego finding his way through an old quarantine building on Curacao, in the old days used for slaves on their way to America.

Flying Lesson

VS, BR, 2007

Director & Choreography : Rosane Chamecki, Phil Harder and Andrea Lerner

Time: 5 minutes

Two women warm up to leave.

La Surprise

CH, 2007

Director & Choreography : Manuel Scheiwiller

Time: 5 minutes

La Surprise a nonsense based Christmas narrative which takes you through a soft and abstract dream world.

Folies d'Espagne

US, 2007

Director: Philip Buiser

Choreography: Austin McCormick

Time: 5 minutes

A mysterious woman appears at court where manner and reputation are essential for survival. She breaks all the rules publicly and is ultimately put back in her place.

Flying Days

FR, 2006

Director & Choreography : Pablo Diconca

Time: 6 minutes

A security guard sitting in front of his surveillance screens witnesses the improbable movements of a man in a business suit.

Karohano

ZA, 2008

Director & Choreography : Jeannette Ginslov

Time: 9 minutes

Karohano tries to bring together two different worlds through the fusion of eclectic dance styles and sounds set in a downtown Johannesburg location.

My Atomic Beloved

IR, 2008

Director: Amirali Navaee

Choreography: Mohamad Abbasi

Time: 20 minutes

Twelve hours before an atomic bomb hits the ground of Teheran a boy rushes through the house of a girl whilst remembering their moments together.